

Hebrew Song Leader, Arts Alive Program, Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington in Rockville. The JCCGW is a premier community center at the heart of Jewish life in Montgomery County, operating a full scale health and fitness center, pre-school, day camp and variety of education and arts programs.

Teacher The position works on Sunday mornings from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm, working with K-4th grade children with the intention of merging hands on experiential learning with an arts-inspired curriculum.

Major responsibilities include teaching and facilitating lessons in all areas of Jewish learning including values, Israel, Torah, holidays, rituals and history. Will also teach Hebrew.

Qualifications include:

- A passion for working with children
- Experience working with k-4th grade children
- Working knowledge of the Hebrew language
- Ability to teach at an age appropriate level using Hebrew as a “living language”
- A love for Jewish life and learning
- Passion for infusing Jewish learning
- Interest in some form of the arts
- Experience working with K-4th graders in Jewish educational environments

E-mail résumé, cover letter and salary requirements to jobs@jccgw.org.