

Development Director

Position Summary:

The Development Director oversees the broad financial resource development program of the JCCGW by leading the development team and working hand-in-hand with the CEO to develop goals, set priorities and implement strategies to meet the fundraising needs of the JCCGW.

Qualifications and Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree and at least five years of development experience with demonstrated success soliciting and closing major gifts; experience in Jewish communal work preferred.
- Creativity and passion complemented by broad experience in the various elements of fundraising
- Experience building and maintaining long-term productive relationships with major donors, board members, volunteers, and staff.
- Demonstrated ability to set and achieve or exceed goals and meet deadlines under pressure in a fast-paced organization emphasizing teamwork, respect, and excellence.
- Excellent interpersonal, written and oral communication skills.
- Strong sense of ethics and propriety

E-mail resume, cover letter and salary requirements to jobs@jccgw.org